

The Dayton Region of the Jane Austen Society of North America

*“I think I may boast myself to be,
with all possible vanity, the most unlearned and uninformed female who ever dared to be an authoress.”*
— Jane Austen

The Dayton Region of JASNA consists of men and women of all ages and walks of life. We enjoy discussing and learning more about Jane Austen, her writings, and the times in which she lived. Our current membership is mostly drawn from southwestern Ohio and northern Kentucky.

The Dayton Region holds three or four programs each year featuring guest speakers talking about Jane’s books, her life, or her world; dramatic readings; musical performances; garden tours; High Teas; etc. Each December, a Birthday Gala Luncheon or High Tea is held to commemorate Jane Austen’s December 16th birthday.

The Dayton Region’s season also features reading group sessions. Each year we concentrate on one of her books, or half a book if it is one of the longer ones. These are delightful and stimulating occasions, featuring lively discussion and excellent refreshments and tea.

The by-laws of JASNA require that all members of a local region be national members of JASNA, as well. Visit www.jasna.org for more information about national JASNA membership and benefits

Basic annual dues for membership in the Dayton Region are $10.00. This covers the costs of the Website and some meeting costs. If you choose to receive the newsletter through the mail rather than through the Region’s Website (www.jasnadayton.org), a $5 surcharge is added to the membership fee to cover the cost of photocopying and mailing the newsletter.
